Coface appoints Alix McCabe as Chief Strategy Officer for North America

Princeton, NJ, January 5, 2026

Coface announced today the appointment of trade credit insurance industry leader Alix McCabe as Chief Strategy Officer (CSO) for North America, effective January 5, 2026.

Alix brings more than 20 years of international leadership, with a strong track record of advancing customer-centric strategies, commercial performance, and operational excellence in the trade credit insurance industry.

With an extensive background in marketing and operational leadership, Alix's appointment will play a role in enhancing customer experience, strengthening solutions and supporting sustainable growth across the United States, Canada and Mexico.

"Alix's strategic leadership and deep industry experience will be instrumental as we continue to evolve our offerings and deliver greater value to our partners and customers," said Christina Montes de Oca, Chief Executive Officer, Coface North America.
